For golf tourney

The ninth annual Friends of Callawassie Island Charity Golf Tournament on Sept. 18 at the Callawassie Island Club raised more than $19,000 for the Lowcountry's needy.

Winners were: Flight 1, Jerry Hetzel/Kathy Levin; flight 2, Ken Meyer/Marian Parrotta; flight 3, tie: Betty Fitzgibbons/Dan Peternell and Philip Kilian/Richard Yetter.

The real winners, though, are the organizations in Beaufort and Jasper counties that benefit, thanks to the commitment and support from sponsors, donors and players. We thank:

Golf sponsor: Callaway; Hole-in-one sponsors: Bay Street Jewelers; Club Car; Stokes Honda;

Media sponsor: Bluffton Today

Gold sponsors: Andy and Maggie Mellen; Classic Party Rentals; Gary Leonard; McCarver & Freeman Wealth Management; Mike and Barb MacGee; Paul and Pat Kelly; Regions Bank; SCB&T; Termotto & Davis Dental Practice; the Duricks and the Roessings; and Valvoline Instant Oil Change

Silver sponsors: Autism, Inc.; BabyFans.com; Callawassie Tennis Association; Carolina Air; Coastal States Wealth Management; Callawassie Women's Golf Association 9 Holers; Dave and Cindy Levy; Dave Carney; Don and Susan Zikmund; Glenn and Robin Hood; in memory of Bill Clark; John Mallett of State Farm Insurance; Mark and Betsy Lagakis; Megabyte Computer Service; Mike O'Hagan; Phil and Phyllis Kilian; Premier Garage; Sutcliffe Golf Cars & Carts; Tom Dudreck; and U.S. Coast Guard Auxiliary, Flotilla 10-01

A special thanks to Callawassie's volunteers and staff.

Finally, congratulations to Mike Foody, who recorded the first hole-in-one in the tourney's history.

The Friends of Callawassie Island has raised nearly $285,000 since 2001 and awarded more than 190 grants to more than 80 organizations.

David Denton

Golf Tournament Chairman, Friends of Callawassie Island
